

The Valle Giulia Dialogues

The Valle Giulia Dialogues is an international collaboration encouraging the exchange of ideas between scholars associated with the foreign academies in Valle Giulia. The organisers invite you all to the next session of presentations.

COURT AND CURIA IN EARLY MODERN ROME

Monday 11 December, 17.00hr

Koninklijk Nederlands Instituut Rome

Via Omero 10-12

Institutional welcome

Loek Luiten (BSR), Hospitality, honour, and the housing of guests in Renaissance Rome: palaces as social hubs of political networks

Bertrand Marceau (Ecole Française de Rome), Cardinal-Protectors in Early Modern Rome

Arno Witte (KNIR), Cardinals and their titular church - a question of curial identity

Lotte van ter Toolen (KNIR), The singular tomb of Cristoforo and Domenico della Rovere in Santa Maria del Popolo, Rome

